Threshold Theatre presents ABD with Mark the C at the Kingston Fringe! Hey I know what you're thinking: "I'm good with HBU and OMG, but WTF is ABD?!" So here's the show everyone will be talking about - without knowing its real name: Allistonian Brockvillian Dionysian!

Set mostly in a hotel in Alliston and motel in Brockville in the 1960s and 70's, ABD with Mark the C explores funny/sad, ordinary/extraordinary characters and events in the potato country of Simcoe County and on the shores of the St. Lawrence River. The play celebrates our desire for connection, communion and escape.

You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll dance!

This is a show for....

Anyone who grew up in Alliston or Brockville

Anyone who didn't grow up in Alliston or Brockville

Anyone who has been part of an unusual family business

Anyone who has a soundtrack to their life

Anyone who wrestles with evanescence

The show is written and performed by Threshold's co-artistic director Mark Cassidy (Kafka and Son, As I Lay Dying, Howl) and directed by Hume Baugh (Child Hood, Therac 25, Alls Well that Ends Well)

Venue: Davies Lounge in the Grand Theatre (218 Princess St, Kingston ON)

Dates: Aug. 1 - 11, various times
